From the Desk of the President

Dear Friends and Supporters,

Every day, across our 15 centres in Delhi, more than 4,000 children look to DCCW for safety, care, early education and skilling opportunities to build a brighter future. Their resilience inspires us, and their achievements reaffirm our mission of Giving underprivileged children a childhood and a future. None of this would be possible without the unwavering support of our donors, partners and well-wishers, to whom I extend my heartfelt gratitude.

This year, our focus remained on two priorities: completing the reconstruction of our Janakpuri Centre and strengthening the quality and reach of our programmes. Alongside expanding opportunities for our children, we continued to invest in our staff, infrastructure, systems and partnerships to ensure lasting impact.

The scale of our work continues to grow. During the year, 1,466 children were enrolled in our Palna WeeKids programme, with 478 transitioning into formal schools. Our Vocational Training Programme supported 1,377 young girls, of whom 459 earned NSDC certification, equipping them with employable skills and greater confidence. Through our Educational Sponsorship Programme, 961 children continued their education despite financial hardship, while our Bal Chetna programme provided specialised support to 116 children with disabilities, helping them realise their potential with dignity and care.

Yet beyond these encouraging numbers lie the individual stories that define our work. Twinkle, who joined our Fashion Designing course with limited opportunities, is today earning an online and offline income through her handcrafted creations. Equally heartening was the return of Sanjay Verona, adopted from Palna over two decades ago, who visited with his family to express gratitude for the care that shaped his life. We were also delighted to welcome several other Palna alumni from around the world, a powerful reminder that the care given to a child can create opportunities that last a lifetime. Adding to these moments of pride, children from our Bal Chetna programme won 4 gold, 2 silver and 1 bronze medal at the Divyalympics.

We continued to strengthen programme quality through staff training, improved monitoring systems, health and behavioural interventions, counselling, and activities that supported children's overall well-being.

Construction of our new 20,000 sq. ft. Janakpuri Centre is now in its final stages after delays caused by pollution restrictions. Once operational, it will provide a modern, safe and welcoming environment for 200 – 250 children. We are deeply grateful to SBI Foundation,

Cadence, Dharampal Satyapal, Gateway Distriparks, Karpi India, Leiner Shoes, Mulani Foundation, Prafull Foundation, Starfire Services, Team Wireless Services and many individual and corporate donors whose generosity has made this project possible.

Our programs also strengthened by the support of numerous partners, including Azim Premji Foundation, AXA XL, CDPQ, Surie Porex Industries, EXL, IDFC FIRST Bank, Ion Foundation, Interpedia, International Action, Nykaa Foundation, Jaquar Group, World Bank, Tirath Ram Shah Charitable Hospital, Dr. Shroff's Charity Eye Hospital, Magic Bus India Foundation, Rotary Club Midwest, Delhi Special Police Unit for Women & Children and many others individual and corporate supporters. We also remain grateful to the medical teams at AIIMS, Safdarjung Hospital and Sant Parmanand for their continuing care of our Palna children.

During the year, DCCW received first prize in CAF America's 2025 Charity Impact Social Media Challenge and was successfully accredited by Credibility Alliance under its Minimum and Desirable Norms framework. These recognitions reaffirm our commitment to transparency, accountability and excellence.

As we look ahead, we remain committed to completing the Janakpuri Centre, strengthening our programmes, building new partnerships and ensuring that every child entrusted to our care has the opportunity not only to survive, but to thrive.

On behalf of the Executive Committee, our dedicated staff and, above all, the thousands of children whose lives you help transform, thank you for your trust, generosity and continued support. Together, we continue to give underprivileged children a childhood—and a future.

With warm regards

Radhika Minocha
Hony President

ORGANISATIONAL UPDATES

Centres & Infrastructure

Re-construction of our Centre at Janakpuri

In March 2023, our flagship programme centre at Janakpuri had to be shut due to structural issues in the building. This centre serves 200+ underprivileged children on a daily basis through all our programmes. We have therefore had to operate out a rental space in the neighbourhood to run our programmes so as to minimise disruption of our services and the impact on our beneficiaries.

After detailed assessments by experts, it was concluded that it would be better - both in terms of cost and quality - to demolish the existing structure and construct a new building, as versus trying to strengthen the existing structure.

This reconstruction project is the most critical financial and operational challenge faced by DCCW since it was established in 1952, as has been highlighted in our last two annual reports also.

The existing building was demolished in early 2024, a suitable architect identified, plans drawn up and approved, and a contractor chosen based on invited tenders. The re-construction of the 20,000 sq ft (in place of the earlier 28,000 sq ft) building started in July 2024.

Initially it was estimated that the construction would be completed by end-2025, but multiple work stoppages due to GRAP restrictions have adversely impacted both the project timeline and costs. The building is now expected to be completed in October 2026, and we hope to start operations at the centre by the end of 2026.

Fundraising for this project has been our priority for the last three years, and it is only due to the generous support of several organisations and many individuals that we have been able to reach close to completion.

We are now at the final stages of this project and appeal for support to all our well-wishers to help us take this project through to completion.

Every contribution makes a difference.

Expansion of the Vocational Training Centre at Qudsia Bagh

A need was identified to expand the vocational training programmes at Qudsia Bagh by adding Beauty & Wellness and Stitching courses. Two small rooms which were in disrepair and disuse for many years, were renovated and converted into dedicated training spaces for the new units. This initiative was made possible by the support of our partners Mr. Ramit Budhraj, Star Cement Charitable Trust, Globe Capital Foundation and Krishaj Foundation.

Renovation of Madipur Centre

Much-needed renovation of our centre at Madipur in West Delhi, was started, and will be completed by July 2026.

Internal Systems

Information Systems

- An asset management system was developed and rolled out across the organisation.
- An organisation-wide MIS was deployed to capture data on all beneficiaries.
- A PALNA specific MIS is being planned for the coming year.

Strategic Planning

To strengthen long-term planning and enhance programmatic impact, DCCW initiated the process of developing a five-year strategic plan, with the objective of identifying key priority areas, aligning organisational goals, and building a shared vision for the future. Two external consultants are facilitating the process.

Certifications & Recognitions

CAF America's Charity Impact Award

This year DCCW was awarded the first prize in the Charity Aid Foundation (CAF) America's "2025 Charity Impact Social Media Challenge". This recognition reflects the dedication of our team and the support of our donors, inspiring us to continue transforming lives and empowering children.

Credibility Alliance certification

DCCW has successfully received the renewal certification from Credibility Alliance. The certification process involved a rigorous two-day assessment of our programmes, documentation, financial records, and governance practices.

Annual General Meeting

The DCCW Annual General Meeting for FY 2024-25 was held on 26th September 2025 at the DCCW head office. A brief summary of the year and the Annual Report were presented by Ms. Radhika Minocha, Hony President, and the annual audited accounts were summarised by Mr, Ishwinder Singh, Hony Treasurer. General Secretary Asheesh Vadera gave an update on the reconstruction of the Janakpuri centre. Ms Neeru Bhatnagar, Director DCCW, made a presentation on the highlights of the year, and the challenges faced. For the first time in over two decades, the total number of annual DCCW beneficiaries crossed 4000.

PROGRAMME UPDATES

PALNATM / Adoption Programme (Established 1978)

PALNA, our home and adoption centre for abandoned and lost children, is our most well-known programme. The name palna appropriately means both 'cradle' and 'nurture'. Formally established in 1978, Palna's history is marked by the unwavering commitment of all those who have been associated with it, and the inspiring life journeys of the over 3300 children who have been placed in adoption over the years. Today, Palna is home to 100+ abandoned and destitute children at any given time.

The palna placed outside the centre allows a child to be placed in it anonymously. This is how we receive the majority of our children. Others come through the police and hospitals, and sometimes families come to the home to relinquish a child.

A sensor placed under the cradle is activated by the weight of a child and sets off a siren, immediately prompting a nurse to come out and bring the child in. Children often arrive in a precarious state of health, ranging from extremely low birth weight and hypothermia in infants, trauma and congenital defects or mental / physical disabilities. Our in-house medical crisis unit is equipped to handle emergencies among infants and newborns. We have a team of dedicated round-the-clock doctors and nurses, as well as physiotherapist, special educator, counsellor, social workers, care-givers and teachers. Our efforts have resulted in the children's milestones being near normal despite institutionalisation and a poor start in life. We take pride in referring to Palna as a home, and not an institution.

Efforts are initiated to trace the family of the child. Only after it is established that the child is abandoned and is declared legally free for adoption, are efforts initiated to place the child in adoption through the centralised portal CARINGS set up by the government.

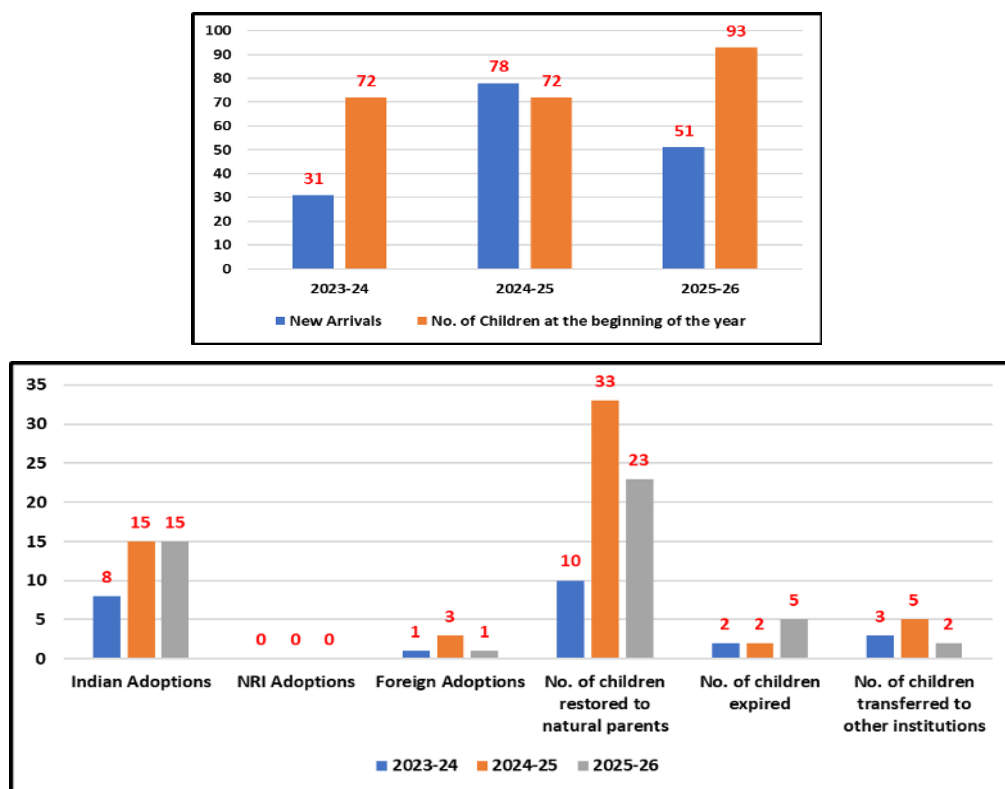

Palna Bal Chetna: Palna continues to witness a large number of children with profound disabilities, including both intellectual and physical impairments. As these children are seldom adopted, a significant proportion of children in our care have special needs. This presents a critical challenge, as such children require sustained, intensive care and access to specialised resources on a daily basis. With limited residential facilities available for children with disabilities in Delhi, we now have several children who are teenagers and it is becoming imperative to find alternative appropriate facilities for them. However till such time as this is possible, we remain committed to their holistic care.

This year in focus

- Palna was home to 144 children through this year.
- The percentage of special needs children continues to be high, at about 45%.
- 23 children were restored to their parents, 2 were transferred to other agencies and 16 were placed in legal adoption.
- A new sunroom has been created in the premises for toddlers to help them grow healthier, happier and stronger every day.
- Enhancements were made to the in-house preschool programme to broaden its scope across multiple age groups.
- Adoption procedures continue to be protracted due to mandatory verification processes stipulated by State and Central Government authorities.
- Palna initiated a collaboration with Swami Dayanand Hospital to streamline the process of obtaining disability certificates for our special needs children. As part of this initiative, a medical team from the hospital conducted an assessment.
- Informative sessions and workshops were conducted for caregiver staff and educators.
- Palna Day was celebrated on 28th March - an evening of fun and food for children who started their journey at Palna, accompanied by their families.
- As always, we had several of our adopted children, now adults (and some married) visiting us along with their families, from across the world.
- The older children were taken on several recreational and educational excursions.
- We are grateful to Azim Premji Foundation, EXL, Ion Foundation, Ujjivan Small Finance Bank, Arpan Prayas, Indian Territorial Army, and other well-wishers for their continued support.

Statistics for the last three years

* When possible, older special needs children are transferred to partner institutions better equipped for their long-term care.

 One expired infant was received in the cradle. Another pre-term infant expired within a day in hospital. Three children with profound disabilities, expired this year - all of them in hospital.

PAYAL: Finally a safe haven

Payal (name changed) was brought to Palna in January 2025 by the police on a protection order issued by the court. She was 11 months old, wrapped in a blanket, silent, unable to cry. A tiny victim of the most heinous crime, she bore clear signs of sexual assault. On being rescued in December 2024, she was immediately hospitalised, and surgeons had to perform two surgeries to save her life.

She arrived at Palna with a post-surgery stoma bag on her belly, weak and emaciated, with remnants of an infection which finally responded to intravenous medication. She was put on a regimen of special milk and soft food. Immunisations were started. Over the next three months she gained weight and her cheeks filled out. And then one day, she smiled!

In the second half of 2025, having gained strength, Payal went back to the hospital for more restorative surgery. On her return, nurses took intensive care of her every day. A month later, she was eating with her fingers, clapping in therapy, and reaching for her doll. In October scans showed she had healed well internally. In end-December she underwent a final surgery, in which the stoma bag was finally removed. She still visits her doctors for periodic follow-ups, but is doing very well.

Our little Payal has blossomed into the most gorgeous little girl, who can be heard singing surrounded by those who love and care for her, and whom she now trusts implicitly.

Educational Sponsorship Programme

(Established 1979)

The Educational Sponsorship Programme seeks to encourage the parents from lower income groups to send their children to school and help them stay in school through the provision of financial support, coaching, and career counselling to school-age children. Girls, children with disabilities, and children from single-parent households are given preference. Financial assistance is given by individuals and organisations to cover the extra expenses of transportation, school supplies, books, and uniforms for children enrolled in school. A quarterly stipend is provided as support. The programme benefited 961 children.

Key features of the programme

Statistics for the last three years

Himani : Rising above limitations

Himani enrolled in our Educational Sponsorship Programme as a student of Class V. Living in a joint family with her grandparents, parents, and three siblings, her home environment was warm but financially strained. Her father, the sole earning member who suffers from health issues, works as an auto driver on rental basis and the family's annual income of ₹78,000 often fell short of supporting the educational needs of the four children. With both Himan's elder sisters pursuing higher studies, and a school-going younger brother, the family depended heavily on external support to sustain their children's aspirations. For Himani, DCCW's sponsorship became that crucial pillar.

Since Class V, Himani has been receiving some financial assistance in addition to the sponsorship amount, based on her strong academic performance. The support helped her meet essential needs—school supplies and other study-related expenses. The programme offered her career counselling sessions that guided her in choosing the right stream as well as understanding the college admission process.

Her efforts culminated in a remarkable achievement—scoring 89% in Class XII. Today, Himani is pursuing B. Com (Hons.) and preparing for the CUET examination to further strengthen her academic prospects. Her college is quite a distance from her home, making daily travel both expensive and time-consuming, but she continues to push forward with determination towards her objective of building a successful career. Her story is a testament to how timely support and consistent guidance can empower a young student to rise above limitations and move confidently towards a brighter future.

Harshita: Getting the right start

Harshita joined the Palna WeeKids programme at our Madipur centre when she was just 2½ years old. She was an extremely shy child who found it difficult to interact with others or participating in classroom activities. She also faced difficulty in performing physical activities such as running and jumping. Recognising her needs, our teachers designed engaging, activity-based learning sessions tailored to her needs.

Through individual attention and a nurturing learning environment, Harshita gradually became comfortable in the classroom. Over time, she learned to identify alphabets and their sounds, actively participated in storytelling and rhymes, and eagerly joined classroom and outdoor activities. Her physical abilities also improved, and she started participating in games with her peers. She enthusiastically took part in Holi celebrations, drawing competitions, and other cultural events, showcasing her creativity and confidence.
